Governors are seeking to appoint an Assistant Cook to join the school catering team assisting the Catering Manager in providing excellent catering service to students and staff.

The successful applicant is expected to prepare and present food to a high standard, complete daily food checks and direct a small team. You will need to be highly self-motivated, and have a flexible approach to the role.

Previous experience in catering and a commitment to providing a quality service are essential.

Interested parties are invited to contact the Catering Manager, Mrs McDougall.

Application forms and further details are available to download from the school website www.epchs.co.uk alternatively you may telephone the school to request an application pack. Please send completed forms to Human.Resources@epchs.co.uk

Closing date 9am on Tuesday 12th October. Interviews will be held Thursday 21st October

Our school community places the highest priority on keeping children safe. Applicants for all posts will be subject to an enhanced Disclosure and Barring Service check.
