

Mrs McHugh's Library News, 15th October 2021

Welcome to this week's edition of Library News. It has been another busy week in the library with students across all year groups borrowing books across all genres. It is wonderful to see members of staff borrowing books too. Mrs Woolmer is reading The Supreme Lie by Geraldine McCaughrean, Mrs Fearon is reading A Thousand Splendid Suns by Khaled Hosseini, Mr Holt is reading Ghost by Jason Reynolds, Mr Parrin is reading Windrush Child by Benjamin Zephaniah, Mrs Abbinett is reading Concrete Rose by Angie Thomas and Mrs Williams has finished reading and successfully quizzed (100% pass!) on The Giver by Lois Lowry and is now reading Piglettes by Clemantine Beauvais! As for me, I've read Pax and its sequel Journey Home by Sara Pennypacker and thoroughly enjoyed both! Both books tell the emotional story of the extraordinary friendship between a boy and his fox and their epic journey to be reunited. This story really makes you reflect on our own impact on family, friendship, the environment and nature. I was moved beyond words by these two books and would strongly suggest everyone reads them no matter what their age! It's reported that Pax is 'destined to become a classic in the vein of 'Charlotte's Web' and 'Watership Down'.

Congratulations to the following students who have read and successfully quizzed.
